In the case of the State vs. James Williams, charged with adultery, a not. proc. was entered by the District Autorney, for the reason that he could'nt make proof of the marriage. The Policemm, Dapron, went to Pond da Lac where Mrs. Cross resided and arrested Williams; that Chief where Mrs. Cross reliated an arrested is thinking, to con-of Police staking the precaution to accure the pre-payment of a sum of money, sufficient to cover the exponses of send-ing for Williams, and to save the county harmless from costs in case the complainant abundoned the prosecution. There must be a defect in the law in this case; the complainant awenrs out a warrant for adultery against her own busband, the act and the venue would, without doubt, have been proved. The complainant swears she was mar-ried to the defendant at such a time and place, and would

REV. MR. HETWOOD:

My Dear Sir >—Allow me to introduce to your notice, Mrs. Addison. M. D., a distinguished lady, as a successful practitioner in the science of medicine.

She spent some time in Springheid, the place of my resistence, where ahe was very successful in relieving suffering humanity, and performing some extraordinary cures. I was induced to put myself under has treatment, as all other means had failed, and I am now recovering as fast as I could possibly expect, and greatly encouraged that if I am prodent I shall be restored to good health. I can, with all confidence, recommending Mrs. Addison to those who are afflicted and are desirous to be cured. You need have no hestiancy in recommending the discussed of your city to visit her at her rooms, and find relief. Her consultations and examinations are free.

Accept the kindest regard of
